

The data is stored until the data subject withdraws his consent for further processing of his data for this purpose. Recipients of personal data Personal data may be transferred by the Administrator to a third country, and the Administrator ensures that in this case it will be done in relation to the country providing an adequate level of protection - in accordance with the GDPR Regulation, and the data subject has the option of obtaining a copy your data. The administrator provides the collected personal data only in the case and to the extent necessary to achieve the given purpose of data processing in accordance with the GDPR regulation. The Buyer's personal data may be transferred to the following recipients or categories of recipients: - A selected carrier or intermediary performing shipments at the request of the Broker or another entity that, in accordance with the concluded contract, deals with the process of handling the shipment and its delivery to the Buyer - in the case of the Buyer who uses delivery by post or courier. – Service providers supplying the Intermediary with technical, IT and organizational solutions enabling the Intermediary to run a business (in particular, suppliers of computer software for sales and company management, e-mail and hosting providers, and software providers for company management and technical assistance to the Intermediary) - only in the case and to the extent necessary to achieve a given purpose of data processing in accordance with these provisions. – Providers of accounting, legal and advisory services providing the Intermediary with accounting, legal or advisory support (in particular an accounting office, law firm or debt collection company) - only in the case and to the extent necessary to achieve a given purpose of data processing in accordance with these provisions. Rights of the data subject The data subject has the right to request the Administrator to access his personal data, rectify it, delete or limit processing, and has the right to object to processing, and has the right to transfer his data, and if its data is processed on the basis of expressed consent, it has the right to withdraw consent at any time. The person whose data is processed by the Administrator has the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority in the manner and in the manner specified in the provisions of the GDPR Regulation and Polish law, in particular the Act on the protection of personal data. The supervisory body in Poland is the President of the Personal Data Protection Office. In order to exercise the rights referred to above, you can send an appropriate message in writing or via e-mail to the address of the Broker indicated at the beginning. Voluntary provision of personal data Providing personal data by the Buyer is voluntary, however, failure to provide the indicated personal data necessary to participate in the Transaction and conclude a contract for the provision of services and a sales contract results in the inability to participate in the Transaction or conclude a contract with the Broker and the seller of the Goods. The data necessary to conclude a contract or participate in a Transaction are each time indicated on the website. Applicable law, language Agreements concluded between the Broker and the seller of the Goods and the Buyer are concluded in accordance with Polish law and in the Polish language.